Stockholm, March 8.

YESTERDAY died Count Lowenhielm, the Preſident of the Chancery.

Warſaw, March 9. The Death of the late Great General of Lithuania has made Room for many Promotions: Count Oginſki, Palatine of Wilna, is declared Great General of Lithuania: Prince Radzivil made Palatine of Wilna in his Place: Count Oginſki, Great Marſhal of Lithuania, made Caſtellan of Wilna: Prince Sanguſko, Vice-Marſhal, made Great Marſhal; and the Marquis de Wielopolſki, Vice Marſhal de la Couronne, in the Place of Count Mniſzeck, who has reſigned.

Copenhagen, March 15. Yeſterday being the firſt Time of her Majeſty's appearing in Public ſince her Lying-in, it was obſerved as a Day of Gala: The Foreign Miniſters, Nobility, &c. had the Honor of paying their Reſpects to her Majeſty upon the Occaſion; and in the Evening there was a Ball and Supper at Court.

Florence, March 15. A few Days ago arrived here Baron Neny, Secretary of the Order of the Golden Fleece, the Enſigns of which he has brought for the young Prince: The Ceremony of inveſting him with it is to be performed next Saturday the 19th Inſtant with great Pomp: It is the Emperor's Name-Day, and on which the Ceremony of Churching the Great Dutcheſs is likewiſe to be performed. Their Royal Highneſſes are afterwards to dine in Publick; and in the Evening there will be a Drawing-Room at Court. There was a Gala at Court on the 13th, being the Emperor's Birth-Day, on which Occaſion the Great Duke received the Compliments of the Foreign Miniſters, and admitted his Subjects to kiſs his Hand as uſual.

Bern, March 16. By the laſt Letters from Geneva we are informed, that on Sunday laſt Meſſ. Lullin de Chateauvieux, Francis Fatio, John Lewis Grenus, and J. J. Bonnet, were elected Syndicks of that Republick; and that the Election was carried on with great Unanimity and Decency.

Hague, March 26. The Inhabitants of the Village of Petten upon this Coaſt, not far from Texel, having been guilty of great Exceſſes with regard to the Crew and Landing of the Ship Elizabeth Dorothea, belonging to the Dutch Eaſt India Company, and which was caſt away off that Place in the End of November laſt, a great Number of them were apprehended; and this Morning twenty-three of them were put upon the Scaffold here, nine of whom were whipped, and the whole Band are to be baniſhed by Sentence of the Court of Holland.

His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Weilbourg and his Children are perfectly recovered of the Small Pox, under the Care of the Engliſh Inoculators, who have been called to Rotterdam by ſeveral of the principal Inhabitants.

Custom-House, London, March 24, 1768.

Whereas on Monday the 7th Day of this Instant March, William Odgers, one of the Officers of His Majesty's Customs at Penzance in the County of Cornwall, was, in the due Execution of his Office, in seizing and securing a large Quantity of uncustomed Goods, most cruelly and barbarously murdered by Melchisedeck Kinsman, Richard Trenear, David Trenear, and Richard Peters, all of them Tinners, belonging to the Parish of Gwennop in the said County of Cornwall, and who were assembled for the Purpose of rescuing the said Goods; the said Melchisedeck Kinsman, with a large Whip, the Head of which was cased with Copper, giving the said William Odgers several mortal Wounds, of which Wounds the said William Odgers languished till the 11th Instant, and then died; and the said Richard Trenear, David Trenear, and Richard Peters being present, aiding and abetting the said Melchisedeck Kinsman to commit the said Murder.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the said Offenders to Justice, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any or either of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

Edw. Stanley, Secretary.

N. B. Melchisedeck Kinsman is a well-set Man, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and about Thirty Years of Age, florid Complexion, his Hair light Brown, but wears a Wig.

Richard Trenear, a lusty well-made Man, about 5 Feet 9 Inches high, about Thirty-five Years of Age, shews a little of the Small-Pox, with a brown swarthy Complexion and black Hair, and wears a Wig.

David Trenear, a well-set made Man, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and about Thirty Years of Age, marked a little with the Small-Pox, a brown Complexion and black Hair.

Richard Peters, a slight Man, about 5 Feet 10 Inches high, aged about Forty Years, a sallow meagre Complexion, with black Hair.

To JOHN COCKBURN.

WHereas the Reverend Thomas Valentine, Vicar of Frankfort in the County of Sligo in the Kingdom of Ireland, by his last Will dated the 10th Day of September, 1763, gave and bequeathed the Sum of Eleven Hundred Pounds English Sterling, which he then had in the South Sea Funds, to his Nephew John Cockburn, if it should appear within Six Months after the Testator's Decease, that he was in the Land of the Living; and if he was dead, the said Thomas Valentine gave the said Stock over to divers Persons. And whereas the said Thomas Valentine died on the 8th Day of November, 1765. Now Notice is hereby given to the said John Cockburn, if living, that if he sends any Testimonial of his being alive to Mr. Hudson, at N° 4. in Staple Inn, London, or to Mr. William Broome, of Didsbury in the County of Lancaster, who is the only surviving Executor named in the Will of the said Thomas Valentine, within Six Months from the 8th Day of March instant, the said Stock will be kept for him till such Time as he shall be able to appear in Person to accept a Transfer thereof, otherwise the said Stock will be sold, and the Money arising by the Sale thereof distributed according to the Testator's Intent, as if the said John Cockburn was actually dead. And whoever can give any Account of the said John Cockburn's being alive or dead to the said Mr Broome, or Mr. Hudson, shall be handsomely rewarded for their Trouble

Note, In the Year 1735, the said John Cockburn published a Book called the Distresses and Adventures of John Cockburn, or a Journey over Land from the Gulph of Honduras to the Great South Sea.
